

In observance of Jewish Disability Awareness Month • February 2015

Film screenings

Wednesday, February 25 (6:30pm)

Leventhal-Sidman Jewish Community Center
333 Nahanton Street • Newton

Keep the Change (16 minutes)

Directed by Rachel Israel

A love story about David, an upper-class charmer struggling to hide his high-functioning autism, who is forced to attend a support group for people with disabilities where he falls in love with Sarah, a sheltered, young autistic woman, who challenges his desire to maintain an identity as 'normal.'

Special Interview (55 minutes, in Hebrew and English)

Directed by Nitzan Rozenberg

Two young people with disabilities become star reporters in this uplifting documentary. Both in their 20s, Efrat Dotan has Down syndrome, Matanel Bitton has developmental disabilities. They have interviewed many well known personalities but their dream is to interview President Barak Obama. The film follows them on their journey.

Discussion to follow facilitated by Sandy Miller-Jacobs, Ed.D.

Both movies with Open Captions.

Pre-screening reception (6:30-7pm) hosted by the CJP Committee on Services for People with Disabilities and the Special Needs Professionals Committee
