JARI PTAC Announces Online Training

Preparing for a Small Business Matchmaker

Johnstown, PA, January 6, 2015: The JARI PTAC is holding an informational webinar on Wednesday, January 28th, 2015. The online training will include a presentation regarding preparing to meet with government buyers as well as prime contractors including what registrations and research should be done before the event. Ample time will be allowed for questions. Any business interested in learning about how to best prepare for a small business matchmaker event is invited and encouraged to attend. Registration is free and the deadline is Friday, January 23rd, 2015.

The JARI PTAC is one of a nationwide network of Procurement Technical Assistance Centers that work with companies interested in selling to federal, state, and local government agencies or to their supply chains. Our specialists provide a wide range of no- or low-cost services to help you succeed in this trillion dollar marketplace. If you would like to register for this workshop or would like more information, please contact Lenora Leasure, JARI PTAC Program Manager, at (814) 254-4022 or lleaseure@jari.com.
