This networking event is designed for individuals doing business along the I-94 corridor that are looking to grow their professional network. The event will be a free and open format event, however we are asking for interested parties to RSVP via email (event co-sponsors emails are below). Upon arriving at the event, a listing of attendees will be provided to each participant to better facilitate connections, both at the meeting and for follow-up after the event.

The event co-sponsors are inviting their respective networks, but please feel free to share this flyer with anyone that might be interested.

We hope to see you on January 8th!
