In the Church

Hector Molina is a dynamic lay Catholic speaker and apologist with over 20 years of experience in professional pastoral ministry and leadership in the Church. He is a former apologist and speaker for Catholic Answers, the largest lay-run apostolate of apologetics and evangelization in North America.

In 2009, Hector began presenting fulltime through which he ministered to tens of thousands at Catholic events throughout the United States and abroad. Hector has been the keynote speaker at several conferences/missions around the valley including the Diocese of Phoenix's Men's Conference in 2013.

With his great wealth of knowledge and pastoral experience, Hector has developed a solid reputation as being one of the most passionate and articulate expositors and defenders of the Catholic faith. A devoted husband and father of five, Hector's fervent desire is to reach others for Christ, who, as the great apostle Paul put it, "desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth." (1 Timothy 2:4)
