

Temple Israel & JCC Academies at Gerrard Berman Day School in Oakland invite you

PJ Havdallah for Tots

Craft Activity * Singing * Candle-lighting * Pizza

Saturday, January 24th, 6:00 pm

At Temple Israel: 475 Grove Street, Ridgewood

Come in your PJs!

Havdallah is the traditional ceremony with candles and spices that concludes the Sabbath and welcomes the start of the new week. Cantor Caitlin Bromberg will lead PJ Havdallah and a brief, age-appropriate evening service. The cantor is known for her warmth and lively melodies on the guitar, guaranteed to appeal to young children. Older sisters and brothers welcome, too, along with parents and grandparents!

Free and open to the community!

RSVP: earlychildhood@synagogue.org

Located at 475 Grove Street in Ridgewood, Temple Israel is a Conservative egalitarian congregation that warmly welcomes everyone to join us: families, singles and couples of every generation and all levels of observance, previous affiliation, interfaith relationships, varied family structure and sexual orientation. Weekly Shabbat services are held on Fridays at 8:30 pm, replaced by a 7:00 pm Family Service on the second Friday of each month, and Saturdays at 9:00 am. Weekday minyamim take place Sunday mornings at 9:30 am and Tuesday nights at 7:45 pm. For more information, call 201-444-9320 or email: office@synagogue.org.

