

Named by TakePart.com as one of "10 Education Documentaries You Don't Want to Miss," "Race to Nowhere" is a film and call to challenge current assumptions on how to best prepare the youth of America to become healthy, bright, and contributing citizens.

Monday, February 9, 2015
6:00 p.m. - 8:15 p.m.
Ironwood Ridge High School Auditorium
2475 W Naranja Drive
Oro Valley, AZ

*This screening is free, but we will be collecting canned goods for our local food bank so please feel free to bring a donation!

*If you have any questions, special needs, or requests contact:
npoirhs@gmail.com

*For further information visit: www.RaceToNowhere.com

Sponsored by:
Nighthawk and CDO Parent Organizations.

Join us at our screening and discussion of "Race to Nowhere."
Together we can make our voices heard in the national discussion about education, childhood and healthy success for our students.

"Raises important questions that parents and educators must confront...a provocative, conversation starter of a film." - Daniel Pink, author of Drive and A Whole New Mind

Join the conversation

 RaceToNowhere

 @RaceToNowhere