

Looking for a “healthy” New Year’s resolution?

Why not strengthen your spiritual-physical well-being?

We are offering four workshops on Saturday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30 am.

- Jan 24: Trace your spiritual Journey—where you’ve been and where you want to go
- Feb 7: How does your image of God affect your spirituality?
- Feb 21: Explore the connections among physical, mental, & spiritual health
- Mar 7: Discover the benefits of having spiritual companions (group spiritual direction)

No prior experience or knowledge is necessary, and persons from all spiritual traditions (or no tradition) are encouraged to come. We hope to help you better appreciate your unique relationship with the Sacred, and where you and the Spirit want that relationship to go. As a part of this series each week we will investigate a different way of praying— see if one is helpful! This series could be extended with topics generated by those who attend.
