MJHR Selected One of CA Top Workplaces For a Second Year

CORDOVA, Tenn. [December 10, 2014] – Memphis Jewish Home & Rehab (MJHR) is pleased to announce that it has been selected as one of The Commercial Appeal Top Workplaces for 2014. MJHR also received this distinction in 2013, the first year for the awards.

The Top Workplaces are determined based solely on employee feedback. The employee survey is conducted by WorkplaceDynamics, LLP, a leading research firm on organizational health and employee engagement. WorkplaceDynamics conducts regional Top Workplaces programs with 40 major publishing partners across the United States.

In one section of the survey, MJHR employees were asked why they love their jobs. One is quoted as saying, "I feel appreciated by my coworkers and manager. I also feel like I am making a difference in the lives of the residents." Another said, "My coworkers are great, and it really makes coming to work much more fun. I think the leadership is great, and I really like the direction the leaders are taking the Jewish Home. I think we have great residents, and I love spending time with them." Still another is quoted as saying, "I thank G-d everyday that I have the job that I do and to know that I am making a difference in the lives of those I serve."

"We are honored to have been selected for this award, particularly because the judges were our employees," said Bobby Meadows, executive director. "Only 50 organizations, which are both for profit and not for profit, are chosen for this honor each year. There were some pretty incredible companies selected along with us, from very small to medium to very large."

"Our board of directors is so proud of our leadership team who make it a priority to make all employees feel valued and that they are a vital part of MJHR," said Minton Mayer, president of the board of directors. "And we are proud of all our employees who work as a team to provide the best care possible to our patients and residents."

The Commercial Appeal held an awards ceremony on December 3 and published the complete list of Top Workplaces on December 7.
