

Commander Dirk Regan

Folsom's newest police commander was sworn-in and assumed his new duties on Nov. 18. Commander Regan joined the Folsom Police Department in 2001 and was promoted from officer to sergeant and lieutenant. His assignments included patrol, mounted, Problem Oriented Policing, vice, narcotics, detectives and administration. He has a bachelor's degree in Biology from Sacramento State and a master's degree in Public Safety Administration from CSU Long Beach.

"My time here has been incredibly rewarding," Regan says. "I fell in love with this community when I moved here and love serving as a police officer. The men and women here are the finest I have ever had the honor of working alongside. I am proud to be a member of this organization."

City Manager Evert Palmer congratulates Police Commander Dirk Regan

Regan as a mounted officer

New Firefighters & Fire Prevention Officers

Firefighters Ryan Bordley, Justin Enderlin and Erick Johnson, and Fire Prevention Officers Lauren Ono and Tiffany Richards were sworn-in last week by Fire Chief Ron Phillips during a ceremony at the Fire Station.

Bordley went to Sonoma State University, attended the Santa Rosa Fire Academy and was a paramedic for two years. Enderlin comes to Folsom from the Contra Costa Fire Department. Johnson graduated from Brigham Young University and has nine years experience as a paramedic. All three recently completed the Fire Department's training academy.

Firefighters Erick Johnson, Justin Enderlin & Ryan Bordley

Fire Prevention Officers Tiffany Richards & Lauren Ono

Ono has a Criminal Justice degree from Sacramento State University. She previously worked at Meals on Wheels. Richards has a bachelor's degree in Health Education from Chico State University and a master's of Public Health degree from San Diego State University. She most recently worked in education and prevention at Kaiser Permanente.